

Rheumatology Knowledge Curriculum/Log: (P=Patient, R=Reading, L=Lectures)

Learning methods:

Patient exposure will be the primary method of teaching. It is advisable that the resident keep a log of the patients he/she has cared for. Lectures and reading will facilitate the learning.

References:

Primer in Rheumatic Diseases:

Rheumatology: JJ Cush

Syllabus- High Impact Rheumatology

Arthritis in Black and White (Radiology)

Kelly Rheumatology Textbook

- The resident will be expected to be familiar with the presentation, evaluation and management of:
 - Rheumatoid Arthritis
 - Osteoarthritis
 - Osteoporosis
 - Systemic Lupus Erythematosus
 - Systemic Sclerosis
 - Inflammatory Muscle Disease
 - Fibromyalgia
 - Vasculitis
 - Polymyalgia Rheumatica
 - Crystal Induced Synovitis
 - Septic Arthritis
 - Seronegative Spondyloarthritis
 - Overuse syndromes: __Achilles tendonitis; __Iliotibial band; __Lateral epicondylitis; __Plantar fasciitis; __Rotator cuff tendonitis; __Trochanteric bursitis
 - Regional Pain Syndromes: __bursitis; __tendonitis; __Back pain; __Neck pain; __Foot pain

