

Nephrology Knowledge Curriculum/Log: (P=Patient, R=Reading, L=Lectures)

Learning methods: It is advisable that the resident keep a log of patients he/she has cared for. This will help direct reading and future patient exposure. Lectures and reading will facilitate

References:

Textbook: Nephrology, McGraw Hill clinical Medicine Series;

Diseases of the Kidney, Schrier

Up to Date

- 1. Diagnosis and management of acute renal failure
- 2. Diagnosis and management of electrolyte disorders
- 3. Diagnoses and management of acid-base disorders
- 4. Prevention and management of diabetic nephropathy
- 5. Diagnosis and management of glomerularnephritis
- 6. Diagnosis and management of nephrotic syndrome
- 7. Diuretic therapy
- 8. Renal dosing of medications
- 9. Diagnosis and management of Hypertensive Crisis
- 10. Diagnosis and management of the complications of renal failure
- 11. Management of the medical complications experienced by patients on dialysis

